Ardrossan Recreation Complex

10PM at Dancing with Hooves Dance

Winner not required to be at event. Although we would love to see you there!

Draw Process:

Manually drawn from a transparent container or one constructed with mesh so all tickets can be seen from the outside.

Prior to each ticket draw for non identical prizes, the ticket container must be rotated, or the container contents agitated, a minimum of 3 times. Anti-static spray may be used to facilitate the rotation of tickets.

Arm of person making the draw must be bare below the elbow, and immediately prior to making draw, the person must exhibit the draw arm and both sides of the open hand to the draw witnesses.

Only the person making the draw may put their arm in the draw container.

When selecting winning tickets, the person making the draw must look away from the container in the direction of the witnesses.

Aurora Arabian Horse Association must retain all tickets with the raffle records for two years after the last draw date.

Prior to draw, all tickets reconciled sold/unsold as indicated in the ticket sales record with the number of ticket stubs to ensure all eligible tickets form part of the draw.

All draws must be open to the public. At least two executive members of Aurora Arabian Horse Association must be present to witness the draw. Contact information (name & phone number) of both draw witnesses must be documented and maintained in the raffle records.

All sold tickets must be entered into the draw. Unpaid/unsold tickets must not be entered into the draw.

The Draw may not be initiated by any person who owns a ticket or a share of a ticket in the draw.

A record of each ticket drawn must be made indicating the: ticket number, name & contact information of the prize winner; and time and date the ticket was drawn.

Winning tickets must be immediately exhibited to witnesses and held open for inspection until the end of the draw.
